Notes for CHARLES BATEMAN:

Youngest son of father.

In the spring of 1820 Charles, his wife Mary, their son Edward, and newborn daughter Martha set sail from Ireland. Their daughter was baptised while en-route. They stayed for a while in New Brunswick, where their second son John was born in 1826, but by 1829 they were already in Upper Canada. Contrary evidence is a declaration in 1842 that Charles had been in the Province for 20 years, implying arrival about 1822. By 1842 the household, including three Irish born and 6 Canadian born, was settled in Caradoc township.
