George moved to Caradoc township in 1870 after the death of his wife. He appears as a widower with 4 children in the 1871 census (div. 1 page 21). In 1871 and 1878 he was farming lot 10 concession 5.

Notes for Marion Black:

Although her name appears as Miriam in the marriage of her son James, and as Mirim in the 1851 census, it appears as Marion on her grave, and that is confirmed by the fact that a daughter, two grand-daughters, and at least one great-grand-daughter were named Marion after her.

Marion may be the daughter of John Black (1789-Nov 13, 1875) who is buried in the same cemetery along with his wife Nancy (1801-Nov. 13, 1866) and a daughter Mary (1831-Apr 15, 1849).
