Notes for John Gale:

John Gale emigrated from Yorkshire England as part of the massive upheaval in both the Industrial and Agricultural Revolutions in England, and the emphasis on developing the land with British subjects before the Americans poured up from the south. They were given a lot of assistance both in passage and job locations. In the 1901 census John was enumerated twice, first at his home, where it is recorded that he immigrated to Canada in 1869, and then at work at the Insane Asylum, where it is recorded that he immigrated in 1882. The second date seems more reliable since he would have only been 12 years old in 1869, and he first appears in the London City directory in 1886.

John arrived by boat at Belleville, ON with two brothers. Hansen Gale left for the USA, probably to Syracuse NY, but all contact was lost. William Gale went to ND USA to farm but was driven out by dust storms and went north to Holbein SK in Canada where he became an early settler.

John went on to London, ON where he was employed by the Asylum for the Insane (later renamed the Ontario Psychiatric Hospital) as a farm laborer, also assisting in supervising and training of patients who helped produce much of the food that they used. John was hired by the hospital on Feb. 1, 1883 at a salary of $18 per month. On Jan. 1 1908 he was promoted to assistant farmer, and was still an employee in 1923 when the old employee register was replaced.

John started as a boarder with a Mrs. Mary Lang at 928 Dufferin Ave. in the east end of London, and later married her daughter. He is listed as a boarder in the 1886 London City directory. In 1887 he is listed as the owner of 928 Dufferin. After the arrival of their first child on November 25, 1887, John and Mary Ann sold the house on Dufferin to Thomas Fuller and bought a property just north of the hospital farm in the 2nd concession lot 8, where they are listed in directories and censuses from 1887 on. The rest of the children were born there. This property is now occupied by the North London Optimists Community Centre. The whole family, including his mother-in-law Mary Lang, but excluding Cicely who had gone to work as a servant for a neighbor, are listed there in the 1901 census. John is enumerated a second time at his job as ploughman for the Insane Asylum. They belonged to the Church of England.

John retired and stayed on the property with his wife and daughter Gladys. When William's wife was totally incapacitated in 1921, they were joined by William's two sons. After John's death Gladys sold the property and retired to London.

- ii. William Gale, born November 25, 1887 in London, ON, CA<sup>83</sup>; died 1951; married Katherine Margaret Whittaker 1917; born August 06, 1894 in 11 Adelphi Place, Portobello, Scotland<sup>84,85</sup>; died 1970<sup>86</sup>.

Notes for William Gale:

From Sep. 25, 1903 to Mar. 31 1906 Bill worked as a Plowman at the Ontario Hospital. He subsequently worked there as an attendant from Mar. 17, 1908 to May 27, 1909. Then, according to the hospital records, he resigned to go out west. He returned from Saskatchewan and started work as a stoker on Nov. 21, 1912. Bill studied and qualified as a Stationary Engineer on the heating plant for the Ontario Hospital. On Jan. 12, 1917 he resigned to accept an appointment as engineer at the Penetanguishene Psychiatric Hospital. In 1917 he married Katharine Whittaker, a nurse who came to work at the hospital from Scotland. They bought a home on Eastman Ave near the hospital. An unfortunate surgical error in the third birth left Katherine totally incapacitated and hospitalized. The two sons went to live with the paternal grandparents and aunt, and the daughter went to live with the maternal grandparents in Scotland.

14. Francis Lang, died Bef. 1872 in Cornwall, England. He married 15. Mary ?.

15. Mary ?, born July 29, 1829 in Cornwall?, England<sup>163</sup>; died December 23, 1911 in lot 8, con 2, London

Twps, Middlesex, ON, CA<sup>164,165</sup>.

Notes for Francis Lang:

Francis died before 1881 as his wife is listed as a widow in both the 1881 London Directory (Village of East London), and in the 1881 census.

Notes for Mary ?:

Mary and her daughters Anna and Polly immigrated to Canada from England in 1872 according to the 1901 census return.

In 1881 Mary was a nurse working at the Insane Asylum and living on the north side of Franklin road west of Ontario in the village of East London with her daughter Anna. Mary was already a widow. Also living with her was her daughter Mary, who was already a widow and appears as May Cox, with her son John Francis Cox. The 1881 census for this household is on page 9 of div. 2 of the census of the Village of London East. The Langs and their boarders are listed as belonging to the Canadian Methodist church.

In 1886 Mary was living and operating a boarding house at 928 Dufferin in East London. This is the same physical address, the city just renamed the street and assigned house numbers when the city limits were moved past Adelaide to incorporate the Village of East London. In 1887 she transferred ownership of the house to her son-in-law John Gale. In 1888 she accompanied her daughter and son-in-law to their new home in the 2nd concession of London Township, closer to their work at the Insane Asylum.

In March of 1901 Mary was still living with her son-in-law on the farm.

More About Mary ?:

Date born 2: November 1829, England<sup>166</sup>

Burial: Mt.Pleasant Cemetery, London, ON, CA<sup>167</sup>

Cause of Death: arteriosclerosis

Medical Information: Dr. J.S.Niven, London, ON

Children of Francis Lang and Mary ? are:

- 7
  - i. Anna Maria Lang, born March 30, 1855 in St.Stephen, Cornwall, England; died June 23, 1931 in London, ON, CA; married John Gale October 04, 1884 in London East Village, Middlesex, ON, CA.
  - ii. Mary Augusta Lang<sup>168</sup>, born January 31, 1856 in Cornwall, England<sup>169</sup>; died February 20, 1939 in London, ON, CA<sup>169</sup>; married (1) John Cox September 20, 1876 in House of Mrs. Mary Lang, St.James St, London, ON; born Abt. 1853 in England<sup>170</sup>; died November 22, 1877 in London, ON, CA<sup>171</sup>; married (2) David Rodger May 20, 1886 in London, ON, Canada<sup>172</sup>; born May 02, 1841 in Scotland<sup>173</sup>; died November 16, 1934 in London, ON, CA<sup>173</sup>.

Notes for Mary Augusta Lang:

Gale family recollections recall that Anna had a sister Polly. Polly was a diminutive used in the 19th century typically to distinguish a child named Mary from a mother named Mary, much as Peggy would be used for Margaret. Since Anna and Mary were still children when they came to Canada in 1872 it must be assumed that both migrated with their mother. In the 1881 census Mary appears as May Cox, a widow.

23. Mary Ann Staples, born June 18, 1793 in Herne, Kent, England<sup>179</sup>; died September 01, 1877 in Eunesford, Kent, England<sup>179</sup>.

Notes for William Smith:

The LDS Ancestral File is suspect because it does not quote sources for its assertions. There was a William Smith of the indicated age in Warwick in 1871, but whether or not he was the father of Eliza, wife of Duncan Dunlop, I do not know.

24. John Gale, born 1799 in Kirby Sigston, North Riding, Yorkshire. He was the son of 48. John Gale and 49. Ann Wifeofjohngalejr ?. He married 25. Anne Robinson November 26, 1825 in Kirby Sigston, Yorkshire, England<sup>183</sup>.

25. Anne Robinson, born 1804 in Norton<sup>184</sup>.

Notes for John Gale:

The only concern here is that this is less than 7 months before the baptism of their first child, but I don't think that is all that unusual. The location of the marriage takes on a greater significance when you note that the baptism of their first child, Jane Gale, is the very earliest event recorded against a Gale in the parish of Brompton. The probability of a move from rural Kirby, which is on a sideroad leading up to the moors, to Brompton, which was on the main road (and later on the railroad) leading into the Vale of Cleveland, is encouraged when you realize that the marriage in Kirby Sigston occurred less than two months after the first steam train run from Stockton to Darlington in the Vale of Cleveland. It is therefore probable that the newlyweds relocated to Brompton for work in the booming industrial center.
